To whom it may concern,

On May 11, 2015, Detective II Carlos Monterroso, an investigator with LAPD's Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force, was contacted by Brent, who claimed to be the Owner/Administrator for the website, furrtrax.com, a social networking and dating site. Brent provided information about an underage user of the website, who was reported by another user as chatting with adults in a sexual manner and soliciting adult users of the website for sex. Brent provided Detective Monterroso with pertinent information that would assist in identifying the underage user in the Los Angeles area, i.e. user names, email addresses, Internet Protocol addresses, and geolocation coordinates.

This document was created to satisfy the Owner/Administrator's request of Department correspondence acknowledging his due diligence in providing the above information.

Thank you,

Detective II Carlos Monterroso
